Qualico Developments: Kensington Provides the First Residential Homes for the Masterplanned Willoughby Town Centre Neighbourhood

VANCOUVER, BRITISH COLUMBIA--(Marketwired - April 9, 2013) - Willoughby Town Centre is pleased to announce the inaugural opening of Kensington, the multi-family residential homes arriving within the masterplanned community of Willoughby Town Centre. Kensington will open its Presentation Centre on April 20th, 2013 and is located at Willoughby Town Centre, in the heart of the Township of Langley. Kensington is comprised of 65 residential condominiums, offering potential buyers the first opportunity to purchase a home in Langley's only walkable retail, and residential community.

Developed by Qualico Developments, Willoughby Town Centre answers the community's need for a gathering hub designed to fulfill the desire for convenient shopping, socializing, and business services, all within a walkable distance of their home. Each suite at Kensington has been designed with quality in mind and will range from a one bedroom, 660 sqft plan to a deluxe 2 bedroom plus den plan at 1360 sqft.

Every home has been carefully planned to provide spacious, convenient living that is built to last. Bold, luxurious features such as nine-foot ceilings, sleek stainless steel appliances, granite or quartz countertops and deep soaker bathtubs complement the style and quality of living at Kensington. Residents can enjoy the additional benefit of living within a pedestrian oriented village, with grocery stores, services and an array of restaurants and cafes, all just beyond their doorstep.

"Our goal is to create a livable community where residents are proud to call this home," explains Diane Zarola, Sales and Marketing Manager for Qualico Developments. "This will be a place where you can live from and socialize with family and friends while always being steps from your door."

Visitors are invited to experience a deluxe a 978 square-foot, 2 bedroom show suite at the Presentation Centre at Willoughby Town Centre (208th Street & 80th Avenue) Langley BC.
